Brother Gilbert Leon

Brother Gilbert Leon Coulter was a 67 year member of the J. Speed Smith Lodge #298 in Willisburg, Kentucky. His father Cecil R. Coulter took part in conferring all 3 degrees and had the honor of raising him to the sublime degree of a Master Mason on September 9, 1947.

Leon attended Campbellsville College, Campbellsville, Kentucky and has shared fond memories of being the only male member of the cheerleading squad. In World War II, Leon served in the Navy as a Yeoman First Class stationed at Little Creek, Virginia. He returned to Willisburg after his discharge and used benefits from the GI Bill to open the Pine Knot Restaurant with his best friend, Gardner Jenkins. Realizing that food business was not for him, Leon sold Gardner his share of the restaurant and headed to Bowling Green Business University in Bowling Green, KY.

While attending BGBU, Leon was introduced to Geraldine Isaacs. Leon was immediately smitten and soon asked her to go steady. Geri (his spelling of her name, not hers) agreed to give him a two week trial. Ever the salesman, Leon closed the deal and they married six months later on June 12, 1948.

Leon followed his father-in-law, W.O. Isaacs, into the automobile business at Super Auto Sales which he owned for over 50 years. As an only child, Leon was delighted when Geri's mother, Lucille Williams Isaacs welcomed him into the family as one of her "boys". Leon enjoyed lifelong friendship and business relationships with his in-laws: Leland Thomas Isaacs (Pat), of Prospect, Kentucky; James Leo "Jim" Isaacs (Barbara Borders Isaacs) of Hilton Head, South Carolina and W.O. "Bo" Isaacs, Jr., deceased.

Longtime residents of Fairway Acres in Fern Creek, Leon and Geri and enjoyed membership at neighboring Wildwood Country Club for over 50 years. Leon golfed with Geri and was proud of her ability to outdrive him. All of the grandchildren learned to fish with "Coulter" and enjoyed spending time with him on the farm. Leon was a dedicated member of Christ Church United Methodist where he ushered for more than 30 years. Always friendly and outgoing, Leon took special joy in welcoming first time visitors, often ushering them halfway down on the right side to sit next to Geri.

Leon took great pride in downtown Louisville where he was an active member of East Broadway Business Association and a subscribing member of Actor's Theater for over 40 years.

Traveling with Geri was one of Leon's greatest pleasures. They did everything from riding a hovercraft on the Baltic Sea to staying in a treehouse on St John, Virgin Islands. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with their family in an Atlantic crossing aboard the Queen Elizabeth II.

Leon truly never met a stranger. He could strike up a conversation with anyone and quickly discover shared interests. Often further conversation would even reveal a common relative. Many of these encounters found their way into the wealth of stories which he loved to share.

Leon moved with Geri to Wesley Manor in January of 2013. After Geri's passing, Leon moved into a single room overlooking the garden Geri tended as a volunteer in the 1960's - and started waiting until he could join her.

Kay and Monty wish to express their gratitude to their husbands, to Joe for his management of their parent's estate and to Lee for lovingly capturing Leon's stories on film. The family is grateful for the Fairway Acres' neighbors for their years of attentive friendship. The family thanks the staff of Hosparus, Home Instead and Westport Place for their father's care in his final days. Finally the family wishes to express their gratitude to the extraordinary staff of Wesley Manor Memory Care for their loving care of both Geri and Leon.

Joseph "Joe" Banna

Joseph (Joe) Banna, of Henderson, Kentucky passed away on Thursday, November 29, 2018 surrounded with the love of family and caregivers at St. Anthony's Lucy Smith King Care Center.

A Catholic born on December 20, 1939 in Nazareth, Israel, the Armenian-Syrian descendant arrived in America passing thru Ellis Island in the spring of 1960 to attend college despite not speaking any English. He studied at the Baptist affiliated Campbellsville College in Campbellsville, Kentucky from 1960-1964 where he received his bachelor's degree in business. In Campbellsville, he met and married his wife and best friend of 55 years, Lewellyn Sinclair. Together they moved to Michigan for Banna's first jobs and had their only daughter, Leanne. He was employed by Central Grocery, Flint, MI, from 1964-66 and from 1966-69 by Vesley Company, LaPeer, MI.

Banna and his family moved to Henderson, Kentucky when he was hired in 1969 as a purchasing agent of the national truck and trailer company, Hercules Manufacturing. He quickly rose to VP of Operations and in 1993 Banna was named President, a role in which he served until his retirement in December of 2009.

Banna brought many innovations to Hercules, perpetuated its growth and was a primary reason the company remained in Henderson, KY. Banna oversaw Hercules relocation from an old plant on Main Street in Henderson to new facilities located on Adams and Bob Posey Streets. While much of Hercules' work involves manufacturing custom built truck bodies & trailers, with no engineer on staff, most of the design work fell to Banna who described himself as an "engineer by experience rather than education".

Perhaps more important is the personal relationship Banna formed with customers, never promising anything he couldn't do, being upfront and correcting anything that did not meet customer expectations. Banna did business strictly on the basis of a handshake and never had any contracts. Recognized as an honorable businessman, he based his business relationships on loyalty, honesty and integrity, and becoming a business partner with many of Hercules prime national customers.

Upon his retirement in 2009 after 40 years of service, Banna was appointed President Emeritus of Hercules, a role he filled up until his death.

Jeffrey A. Caddick, Hercules current CEO/Owner, stated "Mr. Banna was a continuous and constant force and presence at Hercules for 49 years, and while the loss is painful and he will be sorely missed, the simple fact of the matter is that Joe's life's work will live on in everything we do here at Hercules for many, many years to come."

Reflecting upon his 40 years with Hercules, Banna stated "It's been a helluva ride. We've had ups and downs. But overall it has been wonderful". He loved Hercules, its people and all associations.

His biggest joy outside of his career was his only grandson along with his love of his daughter and entire family. He will be remembered for his unconditional love, his belly laughter as well as his love of pizza, pets, the occasional good beer or other alcoholic beverage, exotic foods, traveling, his UK Wildcats and tinkering with all things mechanical.

Banna is preceded in death by his brother Henry Youssef Banna (Samia) and his parents Mary Masri Banna and Youssef Elias Banna, and his father and mother in law WC and Pinkie Sinclair. Banna is survived by his wife of 55 years, Lewellyn Sinclair Banna; his daughter Leanne Banna-Pritchett and son-in-law Steve Pritchett all of Henderson; grandson Chase Pritchett of Atlanta, Georgia; his brothers Steve and J.C Nassim Banna of Hot Springs, Arkansas; sisters Siham Banna (Tony) of Nazareth, Israel and Afaf Masri of Damascus, Syria; his sister-in-law, Paula Sutton of Salt Lake City, Utah; brother- in-laws, J.P. Butch Sinclair of Campbellsville, Kentucky, Eddie Sinclair of Summersville, Kentucky, W. C. Bill Sinclair of Bilioxi, Mississippi along with many beloved nieces, great nieces, nephews and great nephews. He was abundantly loved.

Special thanks to all who offered up prayers, visited, wrote cards and letters, communicated with her on the phone and by Email, and brought food during her long illness. Mr. Wendell Mann

Mr. Wendell Mann, 77, of Radcliff, longtime resident of Irvington, passed away Tuesday, Nov. 14, 2017, in Elizabethtown.

After moving to Irvington, he began teaching at Irvington Elementary School as a history teacher. His favorite subject to teach was Kentucky History. Who remembers the Abe Lincoln book? He loved mowing the grass and watching birds, bunnies and deer. Nothing was better to him than eating food from the garden, with hearty meat and watching his favorite TV shows. He was a member of Irvington Baptist Church and the Masonic Lodge No. 868.
